

In February of 2020, FCA's 11th grade students participated in the Classical Learning Test. This test compares students in classical schools throughout the nation in verbal reasoning, grammar / writing, and quantitative reasoning. Below you will find FCA's median score outranks the hundreds of other test takers. Our highest score was seven points below the highest scorer.

